

Foster Application

Thank you for applying to become a Foster Puppy Jake Foundation. Before completing this application, please review the following information to ensure you understand the expectations of PJF Fosters.

Please read the following carefully:

As a Foster, it is your responsibility to socialize and train a puppy for a span of up to 24 months under the instruction of a qualified Trainer provided by Puppy Jake Foundation. The puppy will be expected to go everywhere with you, mimicking what its life will be like when it is placed with its Veteran. You will also be expected to attend class each week.

Puppy Jake Foundation puts a lot of pride into the training program for Fosters. By filling out this application you agree to be a Foster exclusively for Puppy Jake Foundation.

Please mark below which status you will be applying for:

- Foster Family- please indicate your level of interest (select all that apply)
 - Puppy Starter (10 weeks to approximately 16-24 weeks old)
 - Part-Time Puppy Raiser (approximately 16-24 weeks old to 1 year old, 4 weeks at a time)
 - Full-Time Puppy Raiser (10 weeks until approximately 1-2 years old)

When a service dog is placed with a Veteran it will go everywhere with him or her. This includes but is not limited to work, school, doctors appointments, meetings, church, grocery shopping, etc. If the puppy does not get the opportunity to be exposed and trained in these environments when the puppy is with you then it will not get an opportunity at all. It is imperative that you take the puppy everywhere with you just as if the puppy was placed with you as a service dog.

Puppy Jake Foundation is committed to raising well-bred and professionally trained service dogs with the correct temperament for the job they will have upon placement. In an effort to keep costs down, some Foster Families have offered to cover the costs associated with the service dog they are raising. Please check the items below for which you would be willing to pick up the costs. You will receive a tax acknowledgment letter every year as this donation is fully tax deductible. Save your receipts and submit to the CEO at the end of the year.

Thank you and please know that this information is strictly confidential.

Note: Puppy Jake Foundation is in the process of negotiating donations with vendors that provide some of the items listed below. If savings become available Puppy Jake will pass along these savings to you.

- Food (brand(s) chosen by PJF)
- Toys
- Training treats/Greenies
- Leash
- Collar
- Training collars/equipment
- Crate
- Frontline/Heartgard monthly treatments (currently provided to all dogs)
- Veterinary costs

Puppy Jake Foundation will provide:

- Puppy Jake Foundation service vest
- ID badges
- Card with highlights from the ADA service dog access law
- All other necessary items that you did NOT check above

As the puppy grows you may exchange your current vest and/or other training equipment for a different vest/equipment. The puppy's current vest/equipment must be returned to complete the exchange.
